

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Effective date: 8 February 2022

Replaces: Message from the President, 16 December 2021 - Coronavirus (COVID-19)

The Tribunal is monitoring the Commonwealth and State Governments' announcements and health advice relating to Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Changes to in-person hearings

There will generally be no in-person hearings at NCAT until April 2022.

Matters will proceed by audio visual link (AVL) or telephone. In-person hearings can occur with prior approval of the President only in exceptional circumstances.

Counter services

Do not attend an NCAT Registry if you do not need to. NCAT is not currently conducting in-person hearings and counter services are restricted.

Parties can continue to lodge applications online or by post. Submissions, evidence and other secondary material should be lodged by post.

NCAT's phone line and online services remain operational during this time. Please phone 1300 006 228 for assistance.

Check-in service

People attending any NCAT premises are required to check-in. Service NSW QR codes are on display at all locations, including registry counters and hearing rooms. Manual check-in is available for people without a digital device.

The data captured by the Service NSW COVID-Safe check-in is only used for the purposes of contact tracing by NSW Health.

Mask and face coverings

People attending any NCAT premises are required to wear face masks.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

NCAT
NSW Civil & Administrative Tribunal

Attending in person

People attending any NCAT premises are required to check-in and wear a face mask.

NSW Health advise that people should stay at home if they are feeling unwell. Please do not attend NCAT if you have any of the COVID-19 symptoms listed on the NSW Health website.

You should not be leaving home if you have been directed by NSW Health to self-isolate.

Registrars/Sheriff officers may deny entry or request any person to leave a building.

For the latest updates from NSW Health visit their website.

The Hon Justice Lea Armstrong

President

8 February 2022