

Who is a party to proceedings in the Guardianship Division?

A party is someone who has certain rights in legal proceedings, such as the right to receive a notice of hearing. The parties vary depending on the type of application being considered. Use the table below to find out who are the parties in different Guardianship Division applications.

GUARDIANSHIP	APPLICATION	END OF TERM REVIEW	REQUESTED REVIEW	REVIEW OF AN ENDURING GUARDIAN APPOINTMENT
Person the application is about	✓	✓	✓	✓
Applicant	✓		✓	✓
Spouse *	✓	✓	✓	✓
Carer **	✓	✓	✓	✓
Guardian appointed by the Tribunal		✓	✓
Enduring Guardian ***	✓	✓	✓	✓
NSW Public Guardian	✓	✓	✓	✓
NSW Trustee and Guardian				✓
Party joined by the Tribunal	✓	✓	✓	✓

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT	APPLICATION	END OF TERM REVIEW	REQUESTED REVIEW	REVIEW OF AN ENDURING POWER OF ATTORNEY & REVIEW OF THE REVOCATION
Person the application is about	✓	✓	✓	✓
Applicant	✓		✓	✓
Spouse *	✓	✓	✓
Carer **	✓	✓	✓
Financial Manager appointed by the Tribunal		✓	✓
Attorney/s under the Power of Attorney ***	✓	✓	✓	✓
NSW Trustee & Guardian	✓	✓	✓	✓
Party joined by the Tribunal	✓	✓	✓	✓

* Spouse means the husband or wife or de facto partner (including same sex partner) of the person the application is about. The spouse must have a close and continuing relationship with the person.

 Carer means an unpaid carer who provides or arranges for domestic services and support for the person the application is about on a regular basis or did so before the person lived in a residential care facility. A person is still considered an unpaid carer if they receive a carer's pension.

 if any such person or persons are appointed to these roles.

Contact NCAT

1300 006 228 | www.ncat.nsw.gov.au

Interpreter Service (TIS) 13 14 50

National Relay Service for TTY users 13 36 77

For more information and assistance visit the NCAT website or contact NCAT's Guardianship Division on (02) 9556 7600 or 1300 006 228.